

KEISER COLLEGE ARTICULATION AGREEMENT

Potential number of students that may be impacted in FY 2005.

An Articulation Agreement between Keiser College and the School District of Palm Beach County will enable students to receive credit at the post-secondary institution for courses they have completed in high school. The following graph reflects specific high school courses involved in this agreement and the numbers of 9th through 12th grade students presently enrolled. There is potential for a total of 10,279 students to be impacted by this agreement, and every high school in the county can experience a benefit.
