SUBJECT: 2013 SCHOOL DISTRICT OF PALM BEACH COUNTY COLLEGE AND CAREER FAIR

The 2013 School District of Palm Beach County College and Career Fair will be held at the South Florida Expo Center at the South Florida Fairgrounds, 9067 Southern Boulevard, West Palm Beach, FL on Thursday, October 10, 2013, 5:30 to 8:30 PM.

Over 175 colleges, universities, career programs, and military representatives will be present to provide information regarding post-secondary options. Additionally, commercial vendors who provide tutoring and college search services will also be participating.

The College and Career Fair is one of the most valuable resources for our students in providing them with pertinent college and career readiness information. All high school students and their parents are invited to attend this event free of charge. The opportunity to meet with college representatives is beneficial so that our students can make informed decisions regarding their future and plan accordingly. Prior to the event, a list of participating institutions will be sent to school counselors.

Please inform students and parents about this event by posting the attached flyer, making announcements, and including the details in your student and parent newsletter. You also may want to consider providing bus transportation for students and parents/guardians who might not otherwise be able to attend.
