

POLICY 3.18

4-D I recommend that the Board adopt the proposed revised Policy 3.18, entitled "Teacher Certification Requirements for JROTC Instructors."

[Contact: Darron Davis, PX 48953 or Pat Kaupe, PX 48043.]

Adoption

CONSENT ITEM

- The Board approved development of this revised Policy at the development reading on February 25, 2009.
- The revised policy has been updated to provide for JROTC instructors to hold a District issued career and technology certificate.
- This revision also includes information regarding compensation and the award of professional service contracts, if the individual holds a professional certificate.
- This revision also updates statutory references.

POLICY 3.18

1 DISTRICT CERTIFICATION REQUIREMENTS FOR JROTC INSTRUCTORS
2 JROTC INSTRUCTORS EXEMPT FROM FLORIDA TEACHER CERTIFICATION
3 REQUIREMENTS
4

- 5 1. The Superintendent is authorized to recommend for employment a commissioned 6 or noncommissioned military officer as an instructor of junior reserve officer training
7 corps (JROTC) and require the individual to obtain a career and technology
8 certificate issued by the School District. In addition, the individual must: meet the 9 following: exempt the individual from the completion of requirements for Florida
10 teacher certification, except for the filing of fingerprints pursuant to Florida Statutes
11 231.1712, provided the person recommended meets the following qualifications:
- 12 a. Is retired from active military duty, pursuant to chapter 102 of Title 10 U.S.C.
13 with at least 20 years of service and draws retirement pay or is retired, or 14 transferred to retired reserve status, with at least 20 years of active service
15 and draws retirement pay or retainer pay.
- 16 b. Satisfies criteria established by the appropriate military service for certification 17 by the service as a junior reserve officer training instructor.
- 18 c. Has an exemplary military record.
- 19 2. Persons employed under this policy shall be accorded all benefits of certified 20 instructional personnel, except as prohibited by Florida Laws, State Board of 21 Education Administrative Rules, and Policies of the Board.
- 22 3. Persons employed under this policy shall be eligible for annual or professional 23 service contract. Professional services contracts can only be awarded if the 24 employee holds a professional certificate as prescribed by Sec. 1012.56, F.S., and 25 rules of the State Board of Education.
- 26 4. If a JROTC instructor is assigned instructional duties other than junior reserve 27 officer training corps, he shall hold the certificate required by law and comply with 28 rules of the Florida State Board of Education for the type of service rendered.
