- This revision updates the existing Policy to reflect current procedures and inform parents of the requirements of the District's home education program.
- The revision was requested by the District's Home Education Office.
- The proposed Policy revision was reviewed and approved by the District's instructional specialist for home education; the director of Charter Schools and Home Education; an associate superintendent; a principal; a guidance specialist in Student Services; a school guidance coordinator; and a director at PBCC.

1 POLICY 8.14

2 THE FLORIDA HOME EDUCATION PROGRAM

- 3 1. Definitions.-- As stated in Fla. Stat. § 1002.01(1), a "home education program" is 4 defined as the sequentially progressive instruction of a student directed by his or 5 her parent in order to satisfy the attendance requirements of Fla. Stat. §§ 1002.41, 6 1003.01(4), and 1003.21(1). The District's home education program includes 7 students age-appropriate for kindergarten through age 18. As used herein, 8 "parent" means "either or both parents of a student, any guardian of a student, any 9 person in a parental relationship to a student, or any person exercising supervisory 10 authority over a student in place of the parent," as defined in Fla. Stat. § 11 1000.21(5).
- 12 2. District Responsibilities.-- ~~The Superintendent shall establish procedures~~ 13 District's Home Education Office is the Superintendent's designee to receive and 14 review correspondence notification from parents who are operating directing home 15 education programs, maintain a files of home education students' names, apply the 16 access and privacy provisions of Fla. Stat. § 1002.22 to any student records or 17 reports created, maintained, or used by the Home Education Office, and review 18 and evaluate the results of annual educational evaluations of home education 19 students in the District.
- 20 3. Initiating a Home Education Program.-- Pursuant to Fla. Stat. § 1002.41(1)(a), a 21 parent residing in Palm Beach County who desires to direct a home education
22 program for his/her school-age child shall submit a Notice of Intent by U.S. mail, 23 fax, or hand delivery to the Home Education Office of the School District within 30 24 days of establishing a home education program.
- 25 a. The Notice of Intent shall be in writing, signed and dated by the parent and 26 shall include the full name, address, and birthdate of each child who will be 27 registered with the Home Education Office.
- 28 b. If the child is already enrolled in a public or private school, the withdrawal 29 process should be completed prior to initiating the home education program.
- 30 c. Parents directing home education programs should be familiar with, and are 31 responsible for complying with, Fla. Stat. § 1002.41, "Home Education 32 Programs."
- 33 4. Portfolio Requirement.-- As required by Fla. Stat. § 1002.41(1)(b), the parent 34 directing a home education program shall maintain a portfolio of records and 35 materials, consisting of a log of educational activities, ensuring that the log is made 36 contemporaneously with instruction, designates by title any reading materials

37 used, and includes samples of any writings, worksheets, workbooks, or creative 38 materials used or developed by the student.

39 a. The portfolio shall be preserved by the parent for two (2) years and shall be 40 made available for inspection by the Home Education Office upon 15 days' 41 written notice.

42 b. Students with a prior pattern of public school nonattendance may be subject to 43 regular monthly portfolio reviews in accordance with Fla. Stat. § 1003.26(1)(f) 44 until the home education review committee reaches consensus that the 45 student's home education program is in compliance with Fla. Stat. § 46 1002.41(1)(b).

47 i. If the parent fails to provide a portfolio to the committee, the Home 48 Education Office, as the Superintendent's designee, shall terminate the 49 home education program as required by Fla. Stat. § 1003.26(1)(f)2, and 50 the parent shall be required to enroll the child within three (3) days in an 51 attendance option that satisfies regular school attendance in: a public 52 school; a parochial, religious, denominational, or other private school; or 53 private tutoring program that meets the requirements of Fla. Stat. § 54 1002.43.

55 ii. Pursuant to § 1003.26(1)(f)2, a parent whose home education program 56 is terminated under this paragraph shall not be eligible to reenroll the 57 child in a home education program for 180 calendar days.

58 5. Annual Evaluation.-- As required by Fla. Stat. § 1002.41(c), the parent must 59 provide for an annual evaluation demonstrating that the student's educational 60 progress is commensurate with his/her ability.

61 a. The annual evaluation must be submitted by each anniversary date of the 62 student's registration with the Home Education Office and must comply with 63 the requirements of § 1002.41(c)1, 2, 3, 4, or 5. One acceptable method of 64 satisfying § 1002.41(c)5 is providing an official transcript from an accredited 65 correspondence/distance learning institution.

66 b. The Home Education Office, as the Superintendent's designee, shall review 67 the results of the annual evaluation and notify the parents of home education 68 students regarding their probationary status if the students' progress is not at a 69 level commensurate with their abilities. The ~~Superintendent~~ Home Education 70 Office shall review and re-evaluate probationary students' evaluations at the 71 end of one year to determine if remediation has been achieved. Removal of 72 probationary status and continuation of a home education program are

73 contingent upon the student's demonstrating educational progress
74 commensurate with his/her ability at the end of the probationary period.

75 6. Eligibility for Public Participation.-- Registered home education students are 76 eligible to participate in certain public education programs as follows:

77 a. An individual home education student shall be eligible to participate in: the 78 interscholastic extracurricular activities at a public school assigned by the 79 District, provided the conditions of Section 232.425(3)(e) Fla. Stat. §
80 1006.15(3)(c), Florida Statutes, are met; the Bright Futures Scholarship
81 Program in accordance with §§ 1009.53-1009.539; and dual enrollment
82 programs in accordance with §§ 1007.27(4) and 1007.271(10). Home 83 education students are eligible for: admission to community colleges in 84 accordance with § 1007.263 and admission to state universities in accordance 85 with § 1007.261.

86 b. Home education students may receive testing and evaluation services at 87 diagnostic and resource centers in accordance with § 1006.03. Home 88 education students may access some instruction at their zoned public school if 89 the class is available and related to an interscholastic extracurricular activity in 90 which the home education student participates at the zoned school and/or if 91 the class is related to the student's Individual Education Plan (IEP) for 92 exceptional student education.

93 7. Instructional Materials.-- The parent of a home education student shall be 94 responsible for obtaining and paying for instructional materials; the District does not 95 provide books, curricula, or materials for home education students. However, book 96 series no longer in use in the District may be available, from the District's textbook
97 depository, for lending or free disposition to the public pursuant to Fla. Stat. § 98 1006.41.

99 8. Support Groups; Neutrality.-- Solely for the convenience of parents directing 100 home education programs, the Home Education Office is authorized to provide a 101 list of home education support groups, which may be able to provide assistance 102 with curriculum, instruction, annual evaluations, and other educational matters of 103 interest to those directing a home education program. However, provision of such 104 list shall not imply any direct or indirect endorsement or sponsorship of any group 105 on the list, and the District shall not be responsible for any act or omission of any 106 such independent support group.

107 9. Termination of the Home Education Program.-- If the student's home education 108 program is discontinued, a written notice of termination shall be filed by the parent

109 with the Home Education Office, as the designee of the Superintendent, within 30 110 days after such termination, as required by Fla. Stat. § 1002.41(1)(a).

111 10. Enrollment in Public School.-- If a home education student enrolls full-time in a 112 public school within the District, grade placement and transferable credits shall be 113 determined by the school administrator(s) in accordance with School Board policies
114 such as 8.022, 8.20, and the Student Progression Plan. The student's home 115 education curriculum, portfolio, and evaluations may be reviewed at the school 116 prior to placement or credit decisions.

117 11. Diploma.-- The District is not authorized to provide a regular high school diploma
118 to home education students. However, such students may take the General 119 Education Development (GED) test at an adult education center and be awarded a 120 GED diploma by the State of Florida if the student achieves a passing score.
121 Alternatively, the student may be eligible to receive a diploma from an accredited 122 correspondence or distance learning program if the student has completed the high 123 school course of study required by such institution. Parents may access a list of 124 regionally accredited institutions, without any implication of the endorsement by the 125 District, from the Home Education Office.

126 STATUTORY AUTHORITY: §§ 1002.41(2), (3); 1002.41; Sections 228.041(1), 127 228.041(34), Florida Statutes Fla. Stat.

128 LAWS IMPLEMENTED: §§ Sections 228.041(1), 1002.01(1); 1002.41; Section 129 232.02(4) 1003.01, Section 232.425 1006.15, Florida Statutes
