Jeff Bridges
Consultant
Santaluces High School Band

Need for Consultant Services

Jeff Bridges has been on staff with the Santaluces High School Band since 1991. Over the past 16 years he has worked with 2 different band directors, 4 different principals and all have been impressed with how he teaches our students and works with our administration.

Jeff writes our Marching Band Show, is our show program coordinator involved with all aspects of the design and also works extensively with our winter color guard program. His contributions allow our band to be recognized nationally year-in and year-out and our students show significant improvement in discipline, commitment and excellence under his tutelage.

Jeff also conducts leadership workshops with our students every spring which provides them with Life-Management techniques, organizational strategies and team-building skills. His contributions to this school and school district have been exemplary.
