Subject: RE: S [REDACTED]

The student ([REDACTED] along with an accomplice were skipping class looking for a student they stated they had a conflict with from the community the day before (at home). She and her accomplice refused to listen to my staff and report to them when they attempted to have them report to their assigned area. This occurred over a period of no less than thirty minutes. It was not until I personally got involved did she and the accomplice comply. By that time, it had been reported to me by some other girls on their way to lunch that they were with [REDACTED] and the student that accompanied her earlier in a restroom and they believed they had a knife on them. So I personally attempted to locate the girls. Once I located them, they complied with me and I took them into a vacant classroom, summoned for my female A.P. and an officer, had them searched, and found the weapon on [REDACTED]. The student that [REDACTED] accomplice identified (not [REDACTED] as wanting to fight [REDACTED] was located and searched also, but no weapon was found. [REDACTED] accomplice had been recommended for expulsion for the same type incident last school year (bringing a knife to school to fight a student who she had a problem with at home). She has only been enrolled in school approximately two to three weeks before she and [REDACTED] were involved with this incident.

Although [REDACTED] may have stated that she needed protection, we would not have know about her claims had we not caught her with the weapon and after refusing to comply with the directions of staff whom she and her accomplice ran and hid from for roughly a thirty minute period. Let me know if I can provide any further information. You should be receiving an expulsion packet on her accomplice as well ([REDACTED])

Thanks,

F. Henry

You recommended this student for expulsion for possession of a knife. Student reported she brought it for protection. Was there an investigation completed regarding this claim? Did she identify kids she needed to protect herself from?
