MEMORANDUM

TO: School Board Members
School District of Palm Beach County

FROM: Ann Killets
Chief Learning Officer

THROUGH: Arthur C. Johnson, Ph.D.
Superintendent

SUBJECT: RELEASE OF THE FY2010 ANNUAL REPORT CARD

On August 6, 2010, the Florida Department of Education (FDOE) released the 2010 Annual Report Card.¹ This document reports State of Florida A+ Plan school grades as well as Federal No Child Left Behind Adequate Yearly Progress (AYP) results. The Florida 2010 Annual Report Card is located at <http://schoolgrades.fdoe.org>.

A review of the FY2010 school grade and AYP results revealed the following.

- An unusually large percent of “A” elementary schools in Florida showed a decrease in school grades from FY2009. This is the first year where there was a double-digit decrease (19 percentage points) in the percent of “A” schools. The largest decrease in the prior four years was five percentage points.

FY2010 School Grades

- Palm Beach maintained its grade of “A” for the sixth consecutive year, the only large urban district in Florida to achieve this distinction. Also, Palm Beach earned the highest total points (552 out of 800) of the large urban districts and is in the top 12 of all Florida school districts.
- Palm Beach continued to have a higher percent of elementary (58%) and middle (82%) schools receiving a grade of “A” than Florida (53% and 62% respectively).²
- The percent of Palm Beach and Florida elementary schools earning an “A” decreased the same (20%) from FY2009. In contrast, the percent of Palm Beach middle schools earning an “A” increased six percentage points, while the percent of Florida middle schools decreased two percentage points.

¹ Unlike past Annual Report Cards, the 2010 Annual Report Card does not contain school grades for high schools. The FDOE changed its FY2010 school grade formula for high schools to include a number of additional indicators (graduation rate, enrollment and performance in accelerated (advanced) courses, and college readiness), the results of which will not be available until later this school year. Therefore, the analysis of school grades focuses on elementary and middle schools only, while the analysis of AYP results includes all schools.

² This data includes charter schools for both Palm Beach and Florida.

The School District of Palm Beach County is an Equal Education Opportunity Provider and Employer

- The three schools that improved two letter grades from FY2009 were Belvedere Elementary (C to A), Forest Park Elementary (D to B), and Washington Elementary (C to A).

FY2010 AYP

- The percents of Palm Beach and Florida schools making AYP were the same at 14%.
- The decrease from FY2009 in the percent of Palm Beach and Florida schools making AYP was the same at 9% points.³

Tables of school grades and AYP are attached, and are also available on the District web site at <http://www.palmbeachschools.org/dre/documents/FY10SchoolGradesExecSum.pdf>.
